Description

Early 19thC French Antique Trumeau Mirror with Neo-classical Oil Painting 125cm. A superbly stylish early 19th century French trumeau mirror with a neo-classical oil painting over, within its original giltwood frame and measuring 125cm tall. A good scale and excellent proportion trumeau mirror, traditionally an overmantle which can equally be a wall hanging mirror with painting. A very fine example of an early 19th century, circa 1830, from Bordeaux., with an exceptionally fine quality painting, striking neoclassical theme with central mythological figures, possibly Juno and Cupid, amongst a countryside landscape and classical architectural building by a lake side. An excellent composition and subject, retaining great colour. A skilful early 19th century neoclassical oil on canvas painting, above original mercury mirror plate within the original giltwood frame, 125cm tall x 80cm wide. An elegant decorative antique mirror and painting, both function and form that can enhance a classic or contemporary space, an interior design piece of considerable decorative appeal. These Trumeau examples were traditionally made in Bordeaux. Please note, the frame is structurally g...
