Description

An exceptional antique Victorian leather and carved walnut sofa. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1860-1880 period. It is a very rare model, very high quality and of lovely proportions. The solid walnut frame is beautifully carved and has a lovely colour tone. The deep buttoned leather upholstery has a gorgeous and striking patina. It stands on brass casters and looks amazing from all angles. We have had the frame re-polished, the leather has been hand coloured and revived to give this stunning patinated brown colour tone. The condition is excellent for its age.
