Description

A very good set of 19th century sovereign/guinea scales by Stephen Houghton & Sons Ormskirk. They are in their original red leather case. The scales and outer case are in great condition. The mahogany case opens with a push button which is quite stiff. Rare to have the original red leather case. I believe this is called a double turn split weight for sovereigns and half sovereigns. Box L 14.5 W 3.3 D 2.5 cm
