Description

This is a good quality William IV period low table in excellent condition with very attractive proportions and a really good antique colour and patina. The table dates from around 1830 and is a rare size and style with typical William IV style central column in solid rosewood raised on a circular base with carved scroll knuckle feet. The table is a very useful size and very hard to find with these practical proportions measuring 46 cms high by 52 cms in diameter. UK delivery can be arranged with our local courier and costs £60 plus vat to most areas.
