Description

A fine Hille Art Deco eight seater dining table. Six chairs and two carvers in walnut and each just reupholstered in a soft cream leather. The generous sized table sits eight comfortably, with a rectangular stepped base using beautiful detailed walnut veneer. A matching sideboard and console/serving table are also currently available. Ray Hille began designing furniture as early as 1922. In 1932 her father Salamon Hille retired from the business and Ray Hille took over the management of S. Hille & Co. continuing to take the business forward, with great quality and well designed furniture, still much appreciated and desired today. All our furniture is professionally polished and restored where necessary. Our restorer has over 40 years of furniture restoration experience including 15 years living at Windsor Castle whilst working for the Royal household, so comes highly recommended!
