Description

An exceptional pair of gilt wood carved winged armchairs. These beautiful chairs are traditionally upholstered with coil springs. They have a cream crushed velvet covering in excellent condition. There is plenty of original gilding but also signs it has been touched up at various times. In places like the arm rests the wear is through to the wood. This is to be expected and shows good patination commensurate with their age. Both chairs have high quality replacement feather seat cushions. Height to seat 54 cm
