Description

Victorian Carved Oak bureau bookcase has profuse carvings to the cupboard doors and fall front, with a decorative moulded crown, all furnished with decorative solid brass handles and resting on bracketed feet! The bookcase has three adjustable shelves and the fall front is fully fitted which includes two secret drawers and a carved central small door. The pull outs that suspend the fall front are in good order - although the left hand side handle is missing leaving just a little nub to open. We have left as is to maintain its integrity. The tip of the wing to the right hand side of the crown is also missing. Despite these two small issues it remains a fabulous piece! The base drawers are all graduated. It affords great storage, solid and sturdy along with being in beautiful condition. It came from a very grand home as I'm sure you can tell! The piece splits into two for ease of movement and transport purposes. Dimensions 111.5cm wide x 52cm deep x 230cm high 78.5cm high to fall front. Please see all the photographs.
