Description

A magnificent Victorian silver plated centre piece by the great Elkington & Co. This spectacular example is fully cast in three sections and features interwoven fruiting vine branches, with tendrils and grapes among the leaves. The tripod base has a central column and extends into three acanthus stylized feet. It is crowned by a superb cut and frosted dish, with a petal rim. Few items typify the Victorian era more than these grand centre pieces and this would have been the crowning decoration on a dining or side table. A stunning and eye catching piece in superb condition. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £60.00 UK Shipping may be available outside the UK, depending on the location. Please contact me to request a quotation. Condition :- Excellent, with no plate loss, cracks or splits to the mount and no chips or cracks to the glass. Marks :- Maker's mark, date letter. Date :- 1846. Maker :- Elkington & Co. Height :- 53 cms. Dish diameter :- 30 cms.
