Description

A good example of a small sterling silver bowl with a decorated engraved band around the rim and the bowl. It is stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 93g. It is clearly hallmarked for Alexander Clark & Co, Sheffield, 1931. The makers name is also stamped on the underside. It is in good condition for its age. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some light internal marks and a few light surface marks and some minor dinks but nothing detrimental and it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
