Description

A matching set of 3 solid Sterling silver spoons. They are a large tablespoon size or small serving spoon. They are a simple plain design with no engravings. They are good quality pieces weighing approximately 211g in total. Each spoon measures approximately 9" (23cm) long and the bowl itself is 1 3/4" (4.5cm) wide x 3" (8cm) long. Each spoon is clearly hallmarked for London, 1791 and the maker Thomas Oliphant. They are in excellent condition for their age. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface scratches and a few light marks but nothing detrimental. They have been gently cleaned and polished and are ready for use. Approximate Measurements: Length : 9" (23cm) Bowl Width : 1 3/4" (4.5cm) Bowl Length : 3" (8cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
