Description

This Victorian oak console table from Hutton-Clarke Antiques showcases the intricate craftsmanship typical of the era. The table features deeply carved scrollwork along the frieze, with beautifully rendered floral and foliate motifs. The cabriole legs are embellished with bold, lion-paw feet, adding a sense of grandeur and stability. The top is supported by a raised back, adorned with a shield-shaped design at the centre, enhancing its decorative appeal. This piece is made from solid oak and combines elegance with durability, making it an exceptional addition to any traditional or classic interior.
