Description

This is a superb antique Victorian burr walnut cased four decanter tantalus, circa 1870 in date. It was skillfully crafted in beautiful burr walnut with cut brass mounts to the hinged lid, a swing out compartment either side and standing on a moulded plinth base. It is a decorative piece that is also very practical and would make a lovely gift. It is complete with the original working Bramah lock and key which locks everything. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. It is a popular and attractive wood whose colour ranges from near white in the sapwood to a dark hew in the heartwood. When dried in a kiln, walnut wood tends to develop a dull brown colour, but when air-dried can become a rich purplish-brown. Because of its colour, hardness and grain, it is a prized furniture and carving wood. Walnut veneer w...
