Description

Royal House Antiques Royal House Antiques is delighted to offer for sale this lovely suite of ten handmade original Victorian spoon or medallion back dining chairs with original upholstery made by Holland & Son's for the Reading room of the British Museum circa 1860-1870. Please note the delivery fee listed is just a guide, it covers within the M25 only for the UK and local Europe only for international, if you would like an accurate quote, please send me your postcode and I'll provide you with the exact price. This is a once in a lifetime chance to own this suite of chairs, not only were they made by one of the leading cabinetmakers of the 19th century Holland & Son's, they are in totally 100% original condition and of course made for one of the most prestigious buildings in London, the British Museum no less, I have included above three pictures I found online where you can see the chairs in situ. The Reading Room stands at the heart of the Museum, in the centre of the Great Court. Completed in 1857, it was hailed as one of the great sights of London and became a world-famous centre of learning. Each chair is stamped twice to the base on the rails "Holland & Son's..."
