Description

Edwardian satinwood chest with a galleried back, having two short over two long drawers, and furnished with brass decorative handles. This is a solid sturdy chest affording great storage! It has a lovely colour which will fit in with most decor and surroundings. There are two splits to the right hand flank which is normal with these pieces - they are stable with no movement. The chest has also had historic worm to the back panel - but it is inactive and has been treated.
