Description

This is an elegant antique Regency Period mahogany dining table that can comfortably seat eight people, Circa 1820 in date. The botanical name for the mahogany this table is made of is Swietenia Macrophylla and this type of mahogany is not subject to CITES regulation. The table top is of beautiful flame mahogany and there is no mistaking the fine craftsmanship of this handsome dining table which is certain to become a treasured addition to your furniture collection, and a talking point with guests at meal times. The table is of rectangular form with rounded corners and a reeded edge. It is raised on twin "gun barrel" turned columns on quadruple swept sabre leg bases which are fitted with brass acanthus leaf decorated toes and castors. It has one leaf that can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price, but are available if required. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
