Description

This quality vintage Cigar Cutter is an iconic piece of vintage Silver. Crafted with precision, it is hallmarked for Silver and London 1964. Its design makes it ideal for wearing as a pendant or on a watch chain. The hexagon-shaped case with a textured pattern keeps a blade inside that pulls out in a guillotine action. It's a super gift idea for anyone who likes cigars. The precision blade slices off the end of the cigar without leaving any mess, and the cigar is ready to light up. This piece would make a great gift or a super addition to anyone's Silver collection. METAL Pendant case - Sterling Silver Blade - Steel MEASUREMENTS Measures 3.9cm x 3.6cm WEIGHT 20.3 grams HALLMARKS Lion, London, Date letter i (1964) Makers mark R&R CONDITION This vintage cigar cutter remains in great working order. The blade closes securely and shuts firmly while being easy enough to pull open and use. There is some patina on the silver in keeping with age, only adding to its vintage charm. Overall, this cigar cutter is ideal to be used as intended or worn as a souvenir of history.
