Description

Mid C18th George II period Cuban mahogany oval drop-leaf table of good large scale and proportions. Raised on cabriole supports onto a pad foot with carved 'paper-scroll' detail to knees. Each leaf having a single gate-leg action to provide support when opened. Entirely constructed from selected dense, heavy, thick Cuban mahogany of exceptional quality. Was professionally and sympathetically cleaned and waxed approximately 20 years ago, when the previous owners had caused water marks / damage to the top, retaining a deep rich colour and patina. Would comfortably seat 6 diners or guests. Possibly Irish. H 29" W 57" (centre 19" when table is closed) D 53" England or possibly Ireland c.1740
