Description

An Impressive Pair of early 20th century, Large 5 Branch Continental Turned Walnut Wall Sconces, 50cm. A superbly stylish pair of early 20th century, circa 1900-1920, continental 5 branch wall sconces, measuring 50cm wide with a warm, timeworn patination to turned wood, walnut TBV, bodies and connected to the bulb housing by bent metal branches. Elegant pair of late 19th to turn of the century, north European design, demi-lune 5 branch wall sconces of excellent scale and proportions, featuring an attractive timeworn appearance to the wood and metal surface. Each sconce has a rear wall fixing mount and wired. A wonderful pair of wall sconces, interior design wall lights of considerable decorative appeal, both function form and impressive scale that can enhance a classic or contemporary space.
