Description

FINE & RARE early Monart Scottish art glass vase in the shape of a large goblet in mainly green with gold gilt dust decoration. This is an early piece of Monart from between 1925 and 1930. The shape and colours are very un-common especially in this size. Perfect condition. SIZE; 6" diameter by 7 1/2" tall CIRCA; 1925 - 1930 Monart glass was all started by Salvador Ysart and Isabel Moncrieff and Ysart's three sons in the early 1920's in Perth Scotland. The three brothers; Vincent, Augustine and Salvador then split up from their father and formed Vasart Glass (originally named Ysart Brothers) in 1947. The two firms then both produced similar style of glass simultaneously for a period before Vasart glass became Strathearn Glass in 1965. We can only put early pieces of Monart glass on here because of the dateline of 1930 for glass on Sellingantiques. For the full range of Monart, Vasart and Strathearn glass please visit our own website.
