Description

A late 17th-century English oak chest of drawers, circa 1680, from the Charles II period. This lovely, well-proportioned chest of drawers features geometric mouldings and exhibits a beautiful colour and patina. It has three long drawers with brass drop handles, thick paneled sides, and oak drawer linings. The chest sits on its original block feet. The back of the chest still retains its original boards. In good antique condition, it shows normal signs of age and use. Dimensions: high 81.5 cm x wide 95 cm x depth 64 cm UK Delivery: 70 GBP
