Description

A charming antique Victorian Aesthetic Movement wall mirror dating from circa 1880. With a carved pediment over a rectangular frame with canted corners and ebonised detailing, it features its original aged mirror. A pretty example with attractive patina, the original mirror plate showing plenty of age. Would make a great bedroom or bathroom mirror. With brass hanging chair. Construction/Wood: Satin Birch Condition Report: Good colour and patina. Marks and scuffs commensurate with age. Mirror plate is foxed with loss of silvering. Would have started life as a dressing table mirror. Some loss of veneer to outer edges. Dimensions: Frame Max Width: 54cm Frame Max Height: 106 cm Frame Depth: 5cm
