Description

This exquisite 19th-century walnut dressing table is a testament of the craftsmanship of the period. The dressing table features superstructure with arched rectangular mirror flanked by shaped solid walnut carved support above the four small drawers with original turned knobs, the stunning fine burr walnut shaped top with the single frieze drawers, and beautiful reeded carved front supports, open under tier, with original casters. The furniture is in fantastic original condition. Structurally sound, and there is no any evidence of any woodworm. The rich walnut finish of the table brings out the natural beauty of the wood, classic Victorian example of quality and design.
