Description

An original and traditional Wedgwood Caneware pie dish with a rabbit handle. The dish is all over decorated with game birds and vines bearing grapes. It is in very good condition with only one very tiny hairline crack to the inside of the lid. It doesn't go right through to the outer lid and really is small (2cm). See photo. These pie dishes were made to look like pastry hence the colour. circa 1870. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
