Description

Woven in a Kurdish town in West Persia - Bidjar rugs are famous for weaving tough carpets and rugs in varying designs. This antique Bidjar rug uses the 'Herati' fish design in the rare four yellow corner spandrels. The deep reds and blues with faded and corroded browns for the main border. An ancient and rustic feel and dye palette on this delightful antique rug, woven around 1880-1890 making it over 130 years old. Visit our barn showroom soon to see this rug up close and over a 1000 more. We hold one of the largest collections of antique rugs and contemporary carpets in the UK. Or by selecting a home visit we shall bring this antique rug for you to view in situ, along with more rugs if you select alternatives to view from our inventory too.
