Description

For your consideration is this rather stylish Art Deco bust which depicts a profile of a woman. Circa 1930 in terracotta on black Belgian marble base. Made from terracotta she has wonderful detailing. These are normally found in brass so this one is a little more unusual. It doesn't have a signature, but everything is beautifully made, base on black marble. This profile is in a good condition and a great size for display, just minor traces of wear on the base.
