Description

A lovely example of a large haberdashery or display unit dating from the late 19th / early 20th century. It is made of mahogany and has six sections with 'up and over' sliding doors. The top 5 are glazed and the bottom is a solid panel. Each section has its original brass handle and the whole piece stands on square tapering feet. It is a good quality piece and very well made. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It is not without some minor marks and knocks and a couple of old repairs but no major damages or anything detrimental. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
