Description

Early C19th George IV period figured mahogany chiffonier of unusually small scale and proportions. Raised on turned feet, the square panelled two-drawer cupboard base below a convex moulded frieze drawer with leaf-carved detail to the ends, the sides with fluted flat column uprights with stylised capitals. The upstand panelled back fitted a shelf with carved detail ends, supported by leaf-carved S-scroll brackets. The panelled doors with 'split-reel' moulding surrounds, fitted a lock and working key, enclosing a shelved interior. Carved detail throughout, the well-selected flame-veneer mahogany with a rich colour and patina. In excellent original condition and being of exceptionally small scale and proportions.
