

SA1096149

Victorian Oil Painting Portrait Red Coat Officer Lieutenant Colonel

Price

GBP 3,500

| USD $4,739 | EUR 4,095

Item Reference: SA1096149Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 68 cm (26.8")

Width = 60 cm (23.6")

Depth = 1.5 cm (0.6")

Description

British 19th Century Military Oil Painting Portrait Of A Red Tunic Coat Victorian Officer In Uniform. Impress your clients & guests in your home or office make a big statment with this military artwork that will suite your interior design theme. Title "Red Coat Victorian British Officer Lieutenant Colonel". A rather nice display with the frame being 68 cm high and 60 cm wide. Subject side profile view portrait half length view of a military British red coat 19th century army officer who is wearing his smart regimental military red with brass buttoned tunic uniform. He has dark blue eyes, having strong typical masculine feaatures, prominent jawline, a large bushy moustache, aristocratic nose, with thick dark hair, healty skin complexion looking to the right. Having the Queen Victoria Crown Pip- Rank of Lieutenant Colonel, showing a single star beneath a crown. A lieutenant colonel commands an infantry battalion, artillery regiment or cavalry regiment. They are responsible for the unit both in the field and when stationed in barracks. Badges for field officers were first introduced in 1810. These badges consisted of crowns and stars. The star is that of the Order of the Bat...

Internal Ref: 609

Seller Details

Cheshire Antiques Consultant Ltd

71-75 Shelton Street Covent Garden London WC2H 9JQ United Kingdom By appointment

Tel: 07494 763 382

International Tel: +44 7494 763 382

