Description

This 19thC French Walnut Console Table has a refined overall design to it. Standing on generous paw feet, with decorative leaf carving to the knees. The chunky front supports, adorned with finely turned roundels, lead up to the shaped apron containing a good-sized drawer. The oak lined free running drawer offers plenty of storage. The variegated dark grey marble top has a lovely double reed moulding to its edge. The figured Walnut is a beautiful warm rich hue, and this piece would work in so many areas of the home. Supplied with working key. Circa 19thC
