Description

Heals of London 1930's Oak Dining Table A very good quality, solid oak dining table by Heals of London in the early thirties. Made using lovely grained oak and still in the original finish. The rectangular dining table top is supported by square pillar legs that finish on a sledge foot which are connected by a flat stretcher. In superb condition, the Heals makers label has long since dropped out under the table top, leaving the round recess, the table is also stamped with the Heals serial model numbers. Dimensions Height: 77cm (30.56") Width: 168cm (66.67") Depth: 75cm (29.76")
