Description

A Victorian Gilt Metal Strut Clock in the manner of Thomas Cole, originally retailed by Howell James & Co. London. The silvered and engine-turned oval dial features Roman numerals, an outer minutes' track and a subsidiary seconds' dial; the case has pierced roundels with foliate & diamond decoration. The case-back is inscribed "Howell James & Co. to the Queen, London Paris" and is shuttered to prevent ingress of dust, opening to allow access to winding post, hands and time up/down adjustment. The base of the frame is numbered 199. The clock comes with a key (possibly replaced) and is sold in full working order. Guaranteed for 12 months. Provenance: The clock was once purchased at Bonhams (Edinburgh) on 14th June 2017. Dimensions: Height: 13 cm. Width: 9.5 cm. Condition: Minor scratches consistent with age and small patch of fogging to left of 'IX' on silver dial. Dated: c.1860-70

Internal Ref: 1553/Q
