Description

Really nice large arch shaped continental mirror. This mirror is in mahogany and has a panel back for structural purposes as it is so large. I would say it is the original mirror plate. As you can see in one of the pictures there is a bit of aging to the right hand corner of the mirror and the odd scratch here and there, which adds to his character. Nothing unpleasant to see in the middle part of the mirror where you look. Unusual piece. Note it is very heavy so will need to be professionally installed. - st 3645
