Description

This impressive garniture of five Dutch Delft vases is a true antique gem. Crafted from high-quality pottery, these vases are a stunning example of the artistry of the early 19th century. The intricate floral designs are beautifully executed bordering a Dutch natural history landscape painted beautifully with cows, lakes and distant Dutch architecture, and the attention to detail is evident in every piece. These vases are perfect for collectors of antique pottery, and their unique bovine design adds a touch of whimsy to any display. The age of these vases is estimated to be 1820 making them a rare find for history buffs. Add this exquisite garniture to your collection today and enjoy the beauty and elegance of these stunning vases.
