Description

Antique porcelain 'Schneeballen' Snowball flowers encrusted small vase and salt cellar created by Bohne Söhne Rudolstadt porcelain factory, Germany in late 19th century. The hand painted vase of bulbous form with funnel-shaped neck with gold rim, the body with rich relief decoration of countless flowers with yellow centers, arranged in rows, some roses, blue flowers and green leaves set in front. The piece made of moulded porcelain in the "snow globe" technique /Schneeballen/Boule de neige/, with overglaze painting. Very unique style. Salt cellar is a gorgeous and extremely rare antique piece. Beautifully crafted with roses, flowers, and leaves throughout. The colors are beautiful and very unique. Absolutely a special and unique piece. Blue maker's mark in the shape of an anchor with ligatured "B" on both pieces bases. The Ernst Bohne Söhne Rudolstadt porcelain factory emerged from porcelain decorating studio opened by Ernst Bo...
