Description

This is a tall antique overmantle mirror. A German, giltwood bevelled wall mirror, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Striking golden tonality with a generously sized mirror plate. Displaying a desirable aged patina with original light foxing. Striking frame presents fascinating decorative forms in warm gilt hues. Quality mirror plate with broad bevel and a clear, bright appearance. Shield surmount with foliate relief to the crest standing proudly above the plate. Upper corners adorned with prominent Eagle heads, the plumage in the form of oak leaves. Leaves adorn the lower corners in a graceful scroll form with wreath to centre. Dressed to the rear with hanging wire for ease of mounting. This is a superb antique overmantle mirror, graced with a wonderful mirror plate and great colour to the show frame. Delivered ready for the wall.
