Description

For the wine buff who has everything! A wonderful early 20th century French glazed bookcase or display cabinet. This superb cabinet has a well figured marble top over a body with two glazed doors opening to a shelved interior. The cabinet body is veneered in walnut with exotic wood crossbanding and supported by the elegant cabriole legs which are fitted with decorative metal mounts. The doors of the cabinet have been later hand sign written for the very well-regarded Rhone valley vineyards of Chateauneuf-du-Pape. This is a wonderful cabinet that would be a great statement piece in classy home, retail or restaurant or bar setting. Please see the range of quirky and sign written furniture we have for sale. This piece has been later hand sign written.
