Description

An impressive vintage French 3.03 carat aquamarine and 1.42 carat diamond, 18 carat white gold marquise ring; part of our diverse vintage jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This fine and impressive 1950's aquamarine and diamond ring has been crafted in 18ct white gold. The pierced decorated, marquise shaped setting is ornamented with two feature round mixed cut aquamarines, individually claw set vertically to the centre of the design. The feature aquamarines are flanked on either side by a pavé set transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond. A further thirty pavé set eight-cut diamonds embellish the marquise shaped setting to complete the design. The pierced decorated, bifurcated ring shoulders integrate with the main setting and amalgamate to form the channelled shank. The ring is hallmarked to the outer surface of the shank with the French hallmark for 18 ct gold (eagle's head) and maker's mark, which is partially worn in keeping with age. This vintage 1950s cocktail ring is supplied with an independent diamond grading report card. Images do not always reflect the true colour and brilliance of gemstones and diamonds. The video however provides a truer...
