Description

A very well made late 18thc copper wall mounted candle reflector....it has been made out of an earlier 17thc warming pan lid and then converted to a reflector in the late 18thc...the pan lid is decorated with a floral engraved decoration and the twin branch candle holders have attractive scalloped drip trays and it slots into a specially made "clenched fist"....it really is a beautiful quality made candle reflector in very good condition , with an excellent natural patina... English. C1770-90.
