Description

Arts and crafts style! A truly wonderful late 19th century 'one off' craftsman built light oak wardrobe. The design of this piece is both beautiful & unusual with a moulded cornice over two doors with inset quality leaded glass panels and hand carved foliate decoration in the form of grape and hop vines. The doors are fitted with stylish oversized copper hinges. The wardrobe has a base drawer and internal hanging rail. This is a unique, in the true sense of the word, incredible piece to which words simply do not do justice. It really needs to be seen to be appreciated. Please see our other listings. Dimensions- total height 209cm, drawer height 38cm, total/plinth width 111cm, wardrobe width 99cm, total depth 60cm and wardrobe depth 52cm.
