Description

An unusual Edwardian engraved brass table lamp in the form of a serpent with counter bell to the base, rewired ready for use c.1910. The serpent's body wrapped into a intertwined ring forming the base, the head rising to form the stem, scaled engraved finish and faceted red stones forming the eyes. Polished bell metal counter bell to the front with gravity action push button to the centre. Probably originally in a country house or secured to the counter in a hotel (2 securing holes to the base). A superbly made piece and an unusual talking point, fully polished and rewired ready for use. A short video of the bell being struck can be viewed on our YouTube channel - www.youtube.com/@sturmansantiques1428. Measures 7" wide x 7" deep at the base x 10.75" high to top of lamp holder. Postage and packing cost (tracked and insured) for this item is £14.00 for mainland UK. Please contact us for delivery abroad.
