Description

A large victorian library partners desk. Constructed from mahogany, this desk has six drawers, consisting of three aside, complete with turned knobs. The legs are finely turned in a balustre form and terminate on their original castors. The top has a lovely worn leather inset with a decorative boarder. The desk has a few age related marks and a couple of minor losses commensurate with age, but overall is in fantastic condition and has lovely colour and patination. Height from the floor to the bottom of the drawer rail is 57cm, perfect for most chairs.
