Description

Stunning example of an early 19th century French farmhouse table. Circa 1820's having direct from a farm in the region of Provence. Having been through our workshops and been cleaned and polished, we have had to raise the feet to bring it up to modern day living. The 2 planked top has so much character and wear you can feel the history, the base also has a lot of signs of its age it such a great statement piece. Height 77 cms or 30 inches. Width 86 cms or 34 inches. Length 269 cms or 106 inches. No side rail so plenty of leg room. Top 7cms thick 162 cms gap between the feet 178cms to the outside of the feet. Overhang either end approximately 45 cms.
