Description

Exquisite 19th Century Painting by Paul Viry - Signed "1880 Paris" This stunning oil on board by renowned artist Paul Viry captures the grace and beauty of a young woman in an idyllic Renaissance Revival setting. Signed "Paul Viry 1880 Paris," the piece showcases the woman at the edge of a serene lake, feeding swans and exotic birds, with her loyal dog by her side, holding a basket of treats (though likely wondering why none are for him!). Behind her, an ornate statue, lush flowers, and rich fauna complete the scene, adding depth and charm to this exquisite work. Having remained in the same family collection for decades, it is now fresh to the market in its original frame. This timeless artwork is a true collector's piece for those with an eye for beauty and history. Born in Pocé, France, Paul Alphonse Viry studied at the prestigious École des Beaux-Arts in Paris under François-Édouard Picot, an official painter of the July Monarchy. From 1861 to 1891, Viry was a regular exhibitor at the Salon des Beaux-Arts, gaining recognition in 1864 when Princess Mathilde, cousin of Napoleon III, purchased his painting Dans le Bois. He also found success in the United States, wi...
