Description

Beautiful Mahal carpet with warm colours in excellent condition all over with a high full pile. The soft wool and design of this Mahal make it an attractive piece, that would look fantastic under a dining table or in a living room. It has a great variety of colours, using greens, yellows, pinks and pale blues on a deep indigo blue background. It helps not having a large central motif to place it in a drawing room or study as well, a very versatile carpet that has great potential to build a scheme around. This piece was woven around circa 1900-1910 and has the original ends/fringes in tact, it has had some minimal tidying up in places but no major restoration or re-piling.
