Description

This is a pair of antique side chairs. An English, walnut buckle back seat, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840. Excellent colour and taste to this inviting pair of chairs. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Quality walnut frames present fine grain interest. Rich caramel hues to the frame and cushion in aesthetic harmony. Striking buckle backs with a wide, gracefully arched crest rail. Buckle back splat with twist motif to the shaped bracket. Accentuated to the chamfered rail with lobed detail and leaf cappings. Traditionally stuffed cushion at a comfortable height of 46cm (18"). Quality brushed velvet upholstery in good, clean condition. Accentuated with champagne-coloured brocade trim. Appealing shaped lower apron with relief carved knee decor. Tall cabriole legs at the front stood upon pad feet, gently swept pair to the rear. This is an attractive pair of antique side chairs, graced with delightful colour and quality walnut craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
