Description

Regency Table - Stunning Condition - circa 1820. This table is a fine example of a fold top Regency Tea Table crafted c1820. Presented in immaculate order this table represents a rare opportunity. The fine mahogany is complemented by a contrasting rosewood cross-banded perimeter. The piece is detailed with yew stringing inlay. Riding upon classically turned legs the table is elegantly styled. Rear legs X-spread to produce the flap support and provide a useful table which seats four. Overall this piece of furniture is in perfect order throughout.
