Description

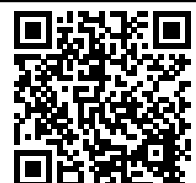

Fine Irish Table - Stunning Condition - c1870 This table is a fine example of a fold top Tea Table crafted c1870 and understood to originate from Ireland. The table is larger than is generally the case for pieces of this type. Presented in immaculate order this table represents an exciting opportunity to own an unusual item of furniture. The fine mahogany is enhanced with split opposing veneer surrounding a banded central rectangle to the upper surface - simply gorgeous. Riding upon square tapered legs which terminate in a wide spade foot the table is beautifully understated and will make a magnificent accent piece whatever the location. The upper rotates through a quarter turn revealing a useful storage compartment. Overall this piece of furniture is in perfect order throughout.
