Description

A wonderful, 'one off' piece of Victorian craftsmanship! A lovely, late 19th century mahogany framed overmantel mirror. The frame has a pierced cornice, a small galleried shelf, carved foliate detail and very unusual decoration which is formed as painted church organ pipes. This is a very usual and possibly unique piece that will look great in a traditional interior & was probably made especially for a well renowned music aficionado. Please see the other antique and vintage piece we have listed for sale.
