Description

James Shoolbred Circular Piano Stool (adjustable height). Circa 1900. Fully stamped with matching numbers. Beautiful James Shoolbred rosewood piano stool with gothic style and elegance. A sturdy, stool of considerable weight for its size. Covered in probably its original fabric. Condition is absolutely superb. Joints are solid. There have been no visible repairs to the frame and no sign of woodworm. There are some minor marks and losses (to bottom of legs only) consistent with age and use. The James Shoolbred makers label is present on the underside of the stool. There are matching numbers (No 9197) stamped on the separate pieces of the stool. The winding mechanism has been serviced with fresh grease and is perfect smooth (the mechanism stamped Charles Wadman). There is also a further stamped reference mark (T9050) most likely the furniture model number. Height = 50cm (adjustable to 75cm approx). Diameter = 38cm
