Description

Ancient Egyptian Faience Shabti dating to the 4th-1st century BC. Shabti are small figurines, usually in the shape of a mummy and were funerary figures in ancient Egypt used to accompany the deceased to the after life. The statue is well modelled and despite its great age there is still good detail to the features. Please refer to the detailed photographs and feel free to contact me if you would like to view the item or have any questions. Price includes FREE UK and international shipping. Size: 9.5cm tall x 2.5cm wide x 2cm deep.
